

Occupational Health and Safety Policy – ISO 45001:2018

Being in the fore front of the Leisure Management industry “Ellaidhoo Maldives by Cinnamon” is committed to conduct all her operations in a protected work environment where it affirms safety and health of our staff, customers, suppliers, contractors and external service providers. Each part of the hotel is committed to accept responsibility for its performance and ensure the overall commitments of this policy are followed. In order to do this we shall:

Commit to carry out necessary steps for providing safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of work-related injury and ill health conditions and minimize the risk of any foreseeable hazards which may result in personal injury, occupational health issues, damage to property, fire and/or security loss;

Commit to comply with all relevant Occupational Health and Safety regulations, other requirements and our own OHS policies and, where possible, go beyond minimum standards that will enhance employee performances and procedures, motivate them to pursue their goals with a higher willingness and improve productivity;

Commit to continually improve our Occupational Health and Safety Management System in line with the requirements of ISO 45001:2018;

Assign management responsibility for the occupational health and safety in all areas of the hotel and ensure that all employees are aware of their individual responsibilities for acting in accordance with this policy;

Develop the awareness of this policy within our direct suppliers, customers, outsourced service providers and contractors;

Check and review continually to ensure that all our efforts, and those of our commercial partners are effective.

This will be achieved by inculcating a health and safety conscious culture among business associates of all tiers.

As General Manager, I'm committed to our Occupational Health and Safety Policy, which is owned and endorsed by the Cinnamon Hotels and Resorts. That said, every Cinnamon employee at every level and in every function in the hotel is responsible for the successful implementation of this policy and the related programmes.

Marlon Robert – General Manager
